

Tim and Judy Sharp - A double shot of happiness

Art was used as a way of communication for Tim following a diagnosis where no hope was given. Tim's joyful artworks of the super hero he created, Laser Beak Man, have brought him international fame.

Tim is the first person in the world with autism to have his art turned into an animated TV series screening on ABC TV and Laser Beak Man is now being developed as a Broadway Production.

Judy and Tim share the story of the remarkable rise of Laser Beak Man and his creator Australian artist Tim Sharp.